Kory Kilpatrick

Dear Kory,

Congratulations!

So far, we've accepted less than 40 individuals out of thousands of applications received.

You've been chosen as one of those select few.

We're excited to invite you to join GauntletAI, an intensive 12-week AI training program designed to transform developers into elite AI-first software engineers.

The Gauntlet is, by design, extremely intensive.

It is not for everyone.

It is structured at a level of difficulty that will require the smartest people on the planet to give everything they've got, and to learn at an accelerated pace.

We hope it will be the hardest you've ever worked.

We hope it will be the fastest you've ever learned.

We hope you'll build more than you previously thought possible.

And we think it will be worth it.

_____

To confirm your place in the program, we ask you to commit to the following:

1. Active Participation: Engage fully in all training sessions, challenges, and projects, dedicating 80-100 hours per week to maximize your learning and growth, starting January 6, 2025.
2. Adherence to Principles: Uphold GauntletAI's values of innovation, grit, and collaboration.
3. Timely Communication: Inform us promptly of any obstacles that may impact your participation, so we can provide the necessary support.

4. Resource Utilization: Leverage the mentorship, tools, and resources offered by GauntletAI to enhance your learning experience.
5. Commitment to Growth: Strive for continuous improvement, applying your skills to solve impactful challenges in AI.
6. Residency Requirements:
    1. If you're located in the United States: You must be eligible to work for any employer without visa sponsorship and be willing to work in-person in Austin, TX after program completion ($200,000 USD/yr base salary).
    2. If you're located outside the United States: You must have citizen or national status in Canada, a US Territory (Guam, Puerto Rico, etc), or a country participating in the Visa Waiver Program, have or obtain an ESTA permit to enter the United States by Jan. 10, 2025, and be willing to accept a full-time, remote position in your country of residence upon completion of the program ($200,000 USD/yr; may be structured as a long-term contract or an employee position at the hiring company's discretion)

As part of this transformative journey, you'll have access to:

- Cutting-edge AI tools and frameworks.
- Mentorship from industry leaders.
- Real-world projects to build your portfolio.
- Opportunities to connect with top organizations seeking AI talent.

Upon successful completion of the program:

- You'll commit to a full-time role in Austin, TX, or a remote role in your country of residence with an annual salary of $200,000.

Please review and sign this letter to confirm your commitment to the program.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to your participation in shaping the future of AI.

Sincerely,

Austen Allred
